Kristin Lentz has been co-managing partner of Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP since 2017. She is a partner in the firm's Corporate & Business Advisory Group, with a practice that focuses on mergers and acquisitions and debt financing transactions. She often serves as outside corporate counsel to both public and private companies in a broad range of industries, including the manufacturing, industrial services, and software and technology industries. She has significant experience in the oil and gas industry.

In connection with Davis Graham's membership in the Lex Mundi network, Kristin currently serves on Lex Mundi's Board of Directors and its Executive Committee. She joined Davis Graham in 2000 after serving as a law clerk for Justice Gregory J. Hobbs, Jr. of the Colorado Supreme Court.

MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS

Kristin represents public and private companies, as well as management teams, in connection with structuring, negotiating, and documenting the purchase and sale of businesses in a multitude of different structures, including mergers, equity sales, recapitalizations, and leveraged buyouts. She often represents clients in connection with successive, strategic add-on acquisitions. Kristin has significant experience with mergers and acquisitions and financing transactions involving public and private oil and gas companies. Her representative transactions include:

- Represented several private-equity backed oil and gas companies in the acquisition of assets in a variety of geographic areas, including Colorado, New Mexico, North Dakota, and Texas.
- Represented a subsidiary of an Alaska Native Corporation in multiple acquisitions of privately held companies engaged in the industrial services industry.
- Represented a Denver-based sand and gravel company in several acquisitions, including the $127 million acquisition of a concrete and quarries business.
- Represented a private-equity owned healthcare services company in numerous add-on acquisitions.
- Represented a private-equity backed industrial services company in several bolt-on
