Kendall Godley is an associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP, specializing in corporate transactional matters. His practice focuses on representing clients in mergers and acquisitions, capital markets and securities transactions, SEC compliance and disclosures, and corporate governance.

In 2023, Kendall Godley was honored with the Sam Cary Bar Association's Billy Lewis Young Lawyer Award, presented by the Sam Cary Bar Association. This award recognizes young lawyers who demonstrate professionalism, leadership, and service in their practice and community, embodying the values of excellence and integrity exemplified by Billy Lewis.

Kendall earned his J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law and his MBA and B.S. from the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. While in law school, he served as an associate editor for the Denver Law Review and as a Colorado Pledge to Diversity alumni-student mentor. After completing his undergraduate program, which had an emphasis on marketing, Kendall played professional basketball in Salerno, Italy.

Kendall currently serves on the board of directors of Denver Kids and as a member of the firm's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee.
