Erin Mooney Notarangelo is an associate in the firm's corporate group, where she supports clients across a variety of business transactions and corporate matters. Her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, including deals involving both privately held companies and publicly traded entities.

In addition to her M&A work, Erin advises clients on corporate law matters such as entity formation and corporate governance. She also has experience with debt financing transactions, assisting borrowers and lenders in negotiating and documenting secured and unsecured credit facilities.

Erin plays a key supporting role on deal teams by conducting due diligence, drafting transaction documents, and coordinating closing processes. She is valued for her thoroughness, responsiveness, and collaborative approach.

Erin earned her J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law as well as a certificate in Corporate and Commercial Law.

Outside of work, Erin enjoys hiking Colorado's trails with her husband and their black lab and curling up with a good book.
