Tara Leesar is an associate in the Trial Group at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. Tara received her J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law and earned her B.A. in Sociology from Emory University.

Prior to joining Davis Graham, Tara worked as a Carr Fellow at the Office of the Colorado Attorney General, where she authored multiple appellate briefs, assisted in preparations for argument before the U.S. Supreme Court, and worked on high-stakes litigation involving consumer fraud and anti-trust matters.

Tara's commitment to public service began while working as the youngest campaign manager for the Democratic Attorney General campaign in Alabama. Tara helped oversee campaign strategy while managing the day-to-day operations of the campaign and staff.

During law school, Tara was a top oralist for the Jessup Moot Court team, an associate editor for the Denver Law Review, and a judicial intern for the Honorable Justice Carlos Samour, Jr. at the Colorado Supreme Court.

Tara is a member of the Doyle Inn of Court and the Colorado Women's Bar Association.
