Veronica (Roni) Vogt is an associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP, and a member of the firm's Energy & Mining Group. Roni focuses her practice on oil and gas, construction, and real estate matters.

Roni brings a unique combination of legal, engineering, and project management experience that informs her practical approach to law. Before joining Davis Graham, her practice focused on transactional commercial construction and real estate matters. Prior to law school, Roni spent five years as a petroleum reservoir engineer with companies in Texas and Colorado, where she developed firsthand insight into asset valuation, regulatory frameworks, project development, and operational challenges. This industry experience enhances her ability to navigate complex legal issues on behalf of her clients. Roni was named among the "Ones to Watch" in Construction Law and Litigation - Construction by Best Lawyers®, an annual guide by publisher Woodward/White Inc.

Roni received her J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, where she also completed a Certificate in Corporate Commercial Law. She earned her B.S. in Petroleum Engineering from the Colorado School of Mines, with a minor in Geological Engineering.
