Xavier Webb is an associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP in the Tax Group. Xavier represents clients in various general transactional tax matters, including corporate mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures; partnerships, LLCs, and other joint ventures; private equity and private equity fund formation; real estate, real estate fund formation, and real estate investment trusts; regulated investment company tax planning and analysis; and financing and capital markets transactions.

Xavier also handles tax issues related to asset-backed securitizations and structured finance transactions, including review of credit agreements. He has worked with fund sponsors on tax aspects of real estate-focused private investment funds, including advising tax-exempt organizations, non-U.S. entities, and other investors on ECI and UBTI tax issues.

Prior to joining Davis Graham, Xavier worked as a tax associate in the Charlotte and Chicago offices of a large international law firm focused on complex transactions and disputes.

Xavier earned his LL.M in Taxation from the University of California, Irvine Graduate Tax Program and his J.D. from the University of California, Irvine School of Law. He also holds a B.A. in Political Science from North Carolina State University.
