

Lauren Sykes

Lauren was born and raised in West Des Moines, Iowa. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Kansas, majoring in Spanish and Psychology. She continued her education at the University of Kansas School of Law. While in law school, she was an active member of the Moot Court Competition Team and served on the Moot Court Council.

After receiving amazing experience in the area of criminal law during law school, she switched gears and went to work for a highly regarded civil litigation firm in Kansas City. This is where she began working in the field of medical malpractice. Lauren clerked for them until law school graduation in May, 2008, and gained crucial litigation skills.

Lauren is licensed to practice law in Colorado, and has also been admitted to the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado. She is also a member of the Colorado Bar Association and the Colorado Women's Bar Association.

She is an experienced litigator and corporate attorney and currently work as in-house counsel for a long-time client, Vantage Data Centers. There, she leads the North American legal team on strategic and corporate goals.

Outside the office, Lauren enjoys spending time with her husband, Tobin, and their young children. She loves to play tennis, read and enjoy the beautiful State of Colorado. Lauren also loves to travel, cook and spend time with her friends and family.
