

Criteria for the Award

The Award “is to be given annually to that lawyer practicing in Denver, Colorado, who, although being under the age of forty, has already so combined excellence as a lawyer with creative leadership in the civic, cultural, educational and charitable activities of our community as to best exemplify the character and promise of Richard Marden Davis at that stage of his career.”

Nominator Information

Name of Person(s) Submitting Nomination:

Organization:

Business Address:

Telephone:

Email Address:

Nominee Information

Name of Nominee:

Organization:

Business Address:

Telephone:

Email Address:

Birth date (including year):

Nomination

Please submit the following documents/information to Emily Sheldon by 9/1/25 (details below):

- 1) A cover letter written by the nominator(s) that contains the following information:
 - a) History of the nominee's legal practice in Denver, and description of benchmark achievements, or exemplary legal contributions deserving recognition for “excellence as a lawyer.”
 - b) Description of the nominee's extraordinary “leadership in the civic, cultural, educational, and charitable activities of our community” deserving recognition.
- 2) The nominee's CV, resume, or firm bio.
- 3) Recommendation letters from those who have worked closely with the nominee in their legal and civic endeavors.
- 4) Any supplemental information (i.e. news articles) that illustrate achievements and contributions.
- 5) Name(s) of individuals who can furnish additional information about the nominee (please include telephone number and/or email address).

Please return the completed nomination by September 2, 2024, to:

Emily Sheldon

Chief Legal Talent Officer

(303) 892-7449

emily.sheldon@davisgraham.com