Chelsea Bollman is an associate in the Trial Group at Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP. She represents clients in high-stakes commercial disputes, investigations, class actions, and multidistrict litigation in both federal and state courts across a diverse range of industries.

Prior to joining Davis Graham, Chelsea practiced in the Minneapolis office of a global law firm, where she counseled clients on antitrust litigation and investigations, claims brought under the Anti-Terrorism Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, and other complex commercial claims. While there, she also regularly served as lead counsel in Fair Credit Reporting Act matters in federal court.

During law school, Chelsea completed externships with the Honorable Patrick J. Schiltz of the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota and with the Office of the General Counsel at the University of Notre Dame. She earned her J.D. from Notre Dame Law School and her B.A. from Michigan State University.

Chelsea also maintains an active pro bono practice. Her work has included representing clients in a successful asylum claim, a Section 1983 civil rights matter, and habeas corpus petitions.

Chelsea is temporarily authorized to practice in Colorado, pending admission under C.R.C.P. 205.6.
